

Connect Group Study

1. The latest McCrindle Survey suggests 58% of people believe in a god. From your experience how do people go about connecting with the divine?

Read Acts 17:22-31

2. How does Paul characterise the Greeks?
3. What similarities exist between them and Paul?
4. What would Paul say are the differences?
5. How would you reflect it using arrows in this diagram?

Greek Thinking

Biblical Thinking

6. If our conversation with God originates with him, what makes it hard for us to adopt the listening posture?

7. How does an understanding of God that starts with Christ (who died for me & rose again) help us submit to the primary posture of listening before speaking?

He died for me therefore...

He rose therefore ...

Prayer Points

Personal Devotions

Spend time reflecting on these passages this week. You may want to ask yourself the following questions:

- (a) What has God done to speak to us?
- (b) How do I need to respond?
- (c) What should change today for me?
