Can you think of someone who's life is truly 'beautiful'? What are the hallmarks of their life?

Read 1 Peter 2:13-20 & 3:1-7

What is Peter asking the following groups to do:

Civilians	Slaves	Wives

Considering these directions, what are the overarching hallmarks of 'such good lives' (2:12) according to Peter?

Apply

"[In our society] ... the greatest commandment is to be yourself and the second is like it: to affirm and applaud whatever self your neighbour chooses to be. The greatest sins, then, are to deny yourself or to question or judge someone else's self-expression."

- Trevin Wax

What is challenging about Peter's instructions in these passages. How can this challenge extend into your circumstances?

How might uncertainty that God is 'for you' lead you to treat others poorly?

Read 1 Peter 2:21-25

What does Jesus teach us in his example?

What does Christ do for us and how does this free us to live 'such good lives'?

Praying big prayers
shaped by the gospel

Pray God might free you to serve someone in a radical way this week as you appreciate Christ more.
